National Portrait Gallery

The Struggle for Justice
A Social Story
I am going to the National Portrait Gallery soon. There are many things to see at the Gallery.
One exhibition I will see is called The Struggle for Justice.
Justice means to be fair to everyone. This woman wanted the world to be fair for all women.
I will see portraits of people who believed in justice.
A portrait shows us what a person looked like.
A portrait can be a painting, a photo, a sculpture, or many other things.
I may see portraits of Mexican Americans like César Chávez.
I may see portraits of African Americans like Rosa Parks.
I may see and hear a TV. I can touch the screen to watch a video.
I am going to the National Portrait gallery.

I will see portraits from The Struggle for Justice.

I may see portraits from this story.

I may see other portraits, too.