Visiting a Museum with My Adult
(Mom, Dad, My Teacher, etc.)

I will visit a museum soon. A museum is a big place. It’s important for children to visit big places with an adult.
My adult knows a lot about me.
My adult has visited many big places. So, my adult knows what to do in a big place.
My adult cares about my safety.

My adult wants me to feel comfortable and have fun, too.
Sometimes I visit big places. My adult is with me. This helps me have a safe and comfortable visit!
A museum is a big place with many people. Safety is very important. Here are 5 Big-Place Rules:
Big Place Rule #1: Staying with my adult is a very, very, very important safety rule.
Big Place Rule #2: Listening for the voice of my adult is very, very, very smart. It helps to keep me safe.
Big Place Rule #3: Following directions from my adult is a good rule. It helps us safely see and do more.
Big Place Rule #4: Walking is a good inside rule.
Big Place Rule #5: Talking when I have something to say is a helpful inside rule.
In a museum, Big Place Rules rule. This means that it’s important to try to:

1. stay with my adult,
2. listen for his or her voice,
3. follow directions,
4. walk, and
5. talk when I have something to say.

These are 5 safe and smart rules.
