

CONFEDERATED TRIBES OF COOS,
LOWER UMPQUA, AND SIUSLAW
INDIANS

National Anthropological Archives
Department of Anthropology, National Museum of Natural History
Smithsonian Institution
301.238.1310 | naa@si.edu

Caitlin Haynes
Christina Laree Newhall
June 2018

Documentation on the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Languages and Cultures:
National Anthropological Archives Subject Guide

This guide highlights archival collections held at the National Anthropological Archives (NAA) and the Human Studies Film Archives (HSFA) related to the languages and cultures of the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians. This guide is intended to facilitate research on the highlighted documentation by enhancing the discoverability of materials and efficiency of searches. The materials represented in this subject guide and held at the NAA are not exhaustive, nor are they representative of all of the relevant documentation in existence. It is also important to understand that given the historical nature of this documentation—these materials were collected and catalogued throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries—its metadata reflects terminology in use at the time, which may be at odds with contemporary terminology. This guide is also a living document, subject to change and revision as staff updates catalog descriptions and access policies, and as further materials are processed and/or acquired by the NAA. The NAA welcomes input and edits from Native community members, and works to incorporate these changes into catalog records, access policies, collection information, and subsequently, subject guides.

Additional information about each collection is available in the catalog record in Collections Search Center (CSC), the Smithsonian's Online Virtual Archive (SOVA), or SIRIS, the Smithsonian Institution's online public databases for museum, library, and archival materials. Further information for some collections can also be found in finding aids. Finding aids are more detailed than the annotations in this guide. They provide context for the materials described as well as a contents list, usually to the box and folder level, and sometimes to the item level. The existence of a finding aid will be noted (and linked) in the annotations within this guide.

National Anthropological Archives:

The NAA, along with the HSFA, collects and preserves historical and contemporary anthropological materials that document the world's cultures and the history of anthropology. The NAA is the successor to the archives of the Bureau of American Ethnology (BAE), which was founded in 1879 by John Wesley Powell. In 1968, The NAA was established, incorporating the collections of the BAE as well as the papers of the National Museum of Natural History's Division of Ethnology (Department of Anthropology). These collections include the Smithsonian's earliest attempts to document North American Indigenous cultures and the cultures of the world. Much of the NAA's current holdings related to language documentation and ethnology were collected and created by Smithsonian anthropologists in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians Archival Material:

The archival materials listed in this guide relate to the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians. This grouping reflects the contemporary socio-political organization of these tribes. The materials date from the mid-nineteenth century to the early twenty-first century and include vocabularies, grammatical notes, field notes, photographs, government records, correspondence, and sound recordings. Much of this material was collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg, an ethnologist and linguist with the Bureau of American Ethnology from 1913-1917, who primarily focused his research on Coosan languages. Some material represented in the following guide has been published. Where possible, this guide provides links to those publications.

Alternative names or spellings for Coos includes the terminology for the dialects Hanis and Miluk. The documentation listed in this guide may be Coosan, in the Coos language or Kusan languages, English, and/or other languages from the Coosan language family. Please note that at the time when the documentation was amassed the Penutian hypothesis which proposes lumping these languages into the larger proposed Penutian family, had not been articulated.

Acknowledgements:

Digitization and preparation of these materials for online access and the development of this subject guide has been funded by the National Science Foundation under BCS Grant No. 1561167 and the Recovering Voices initiative at the Smithsonian's National Museum of Natural History.

CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------------------------------|----|
| Vocabularies and Grammatical Notes | 4 |
| Ethnography | 10 |
| Sound Recordings | 15 |
| Photographs | 16 |

VOCABULARIES AND GRAMMATICAL NOTES

MS 191-B: George Gibb's copies of John J. Milhau's vocabularies of "An-a-sitch (Coos Bay No. 1)" and "Coos Bay (No. 2)"

Created by John J. Milhau and copied by George Gibbs. 12 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS191B>.

Copy made by George Gibbs of two vocabularies recorded by John J. Milhau. "An-a-sitch (Coos Bay No. 1)" totals 6 pages and "Coos Bay (No. 2)" also totals 6 pages. The original vocabularies made by Milhau can be found in MS 191-A, which is listed in this guide under Ethnography.

MS 218: Comparative vocabulary of the languages spoken by the Umpqua, Lower Rogue River, and Calapooia Tribes of Indians

Created by W. H. Barnhardt. May 1859. 35 pages. Finding aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS218>. Digital surrogates available through the finding aid.

Includes 2 original vocabularies copied by Barnhardt, totaling 6 pages each; and separate copies of these vocabularies made by George Gibbs, also totaling 6 pages each.

MS 557: Coos vocabulary in Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages Collected by George P. Bissell. Created sometime after 1877. Approximately 47 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS557>.

Included in this manuscript is a note on page 8 from the author, which states, "The Coos and the Umpqua are cognate dialects of the same language." And a note on page 2 in the hand of Albert S. Gatschet which reads, "The Umpqua Indians mentioned in this voc. as speaking a dialect cognate to Kusa are not Umpqua-Tinn'e, but the Indians living on the Lower Umpqua River, probably on its outlet." The manuscript is written in Schedule of John Wesley Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages, 1877.

MS 873: Lower Umpqua Vocabulary in Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages

Collected by George P. Bissell. September 1881. 56 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS873>.

Recorded in Schedule of John Wesley Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages, 1880, partly filled. Contains 801 terms. According to the catalog record note, Umpqua on Bay and River, Siuslaw, Alsea, and Yakwina, are "of the same stock."

MS 955-A: "Alseya and Yakoner" vocabulary

Created by John J. Milhau. 1856. 6 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS955A>.

Includes a note from Milhau, which states, "This is the language of all the coast Indians living between Cape Perpetua and Cape Foulweather and up the Alseya and Yakoner rivers." Also includes a note in the hand of George Gibbs, which states, "Not Tinne, not Siusclau R." This manuscript was originally sent by Milhau to George Gibbs in 1856. Milhau included a letter to Gibbs dated 14 November 1856 in which he stated, "I enclose you herewith vocabularies of the Indian languages spoken between Cape Arago and Cape Foulweather viz the Coose Bay, lower Umpqua or Kallawatsett, and the Alseya, also the Umpqua proper." The language in this entry varies from the language of its catalog record. This could be spelling and grammar corrections, additional information regarding Coos materials, abridgement, and/or removal of culturally sensitive or outdated terminology.

Related Collections: Original letters and related vocabularies from Milhau to Gibbs are held in NAA MS 191-A. Additional related materials and/or other copies are held in NAA MS 191-B, MS 957, MS 958, and MS 955-B.

MS 955-B: Yakona Vocabulary

Created by John J. Milhau and copied by George Gibbs. 6 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS955B>.

Includes penciled notes in hand of George Gibbs as follows, “Remote aff[iliation] with Kalawatse or Lower Umpqua.” This manuscript was originally sent by Milhau to George Gibbs in 1856. Milhau included a letter to Gibbs dated 14 November 1856 in which he stated, “I enclose you herewith vocabularies of the Indian languages spoken between Cape Arago and Cape Foulweather viz the Coose Bay, lower Umpque or Kallawatsett, and the Aalseya, also the Umpqua proper.” The language in this entry varies from the language within its catalog record. This could be spelling and grammar corrections, additional information regarding Coos materials, abridgement, and/or removal of culturally sensitive or outdated terminology.

Related collections: Original letters and related vocabularies from Milhau to Gibbs are held in NAA MS 191-A. Additional related materials and/or other copies are held in NAA MS 191-B, MS 957, MS 958, and MS 955-A.

MS 957: Copy by George Gibbs of John J. Milhau's Kalawatset or Lower Umpqua vocabulary

Created by John J. Milhau and copied by George Gibbs. 6 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS957>.

Includes some changes in orthography made by George Gibbs.

Related collections: Original Lower Umpqua vocabulary by Milhau held in MS 958. Original letters and related vocabularies from Milhau to Gibbs are held in NAA MS 191-A. Additional related materials and/or other copies are held in NAA MS 191-B and MS 955-A.

MS 958: Kalawatset or Lower Umpqua vocabulary

Created by John J. Milhau. 1856. 6 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS958>.

This manuscript was originally sent by Milhau to George Gibbs in 1856. Milhau included a letter to Gibbs dated 14 November 1856 in which he stated, “I enclose you herewith vocabularies of the Indian languages spoken between Cape Arago and Cape Foulweather viz the Coose Bay, lower Umpque or Kallawatsett, and the Aalseya, also the Umpqua proper.” The language in this entry varies from the language within its catalog record. This could be spelling and grammar corrections, additional information regarding Coos materials, abridgement, and/or removal of culturally sensitive or outdated terminology.

Related collections: Original letters and related vocabularies from Milhau to Gibbs are held in NAA MS 191-A. Additional related materials and/or other copies are held in NAA MS 191-B, MS 957, and MS 955-A.

MS 1277: Coos and Takelma vocabularies

Collected by Henry Hull St. Clair, II. July 1903-1904. 4 notebooks and approximately 50 small sheets. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1277>.

Includes one notebook containing Coos vocabulary and a Takelma vocabulary; three small notebooks marked II, III, and IV containing Coos words and phrases; and approximately 50 small sheets with Coos words, all marked “copied.” MS 1822 is the final, published version of these materials. For more information see the catalog record for MS 1822 at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1822>

MS 1727: Grammar in the Siuslaw language

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 386 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1727>.

Published in Bureau of American Ethnology Bulletin No. 40 as “Siuslawan (Lower Umpqua),” although this publication includes additional information on pages 611-629 that is not present in this manuscript. The last 50-60 pages of this manuscript consist of vocabularies possibly compiled from other materials held at the Bureau of American Ethnology.

MS 1822: Coos linguistic material

Collected by Harry Hull St. Clair, II. 1903. 2 volumes, 390 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1822>.

Consists of words, phrases, and text with interlinear and free translations with grammatical notes. The complete transcribed texts of St. Clair are published by Leo J. Frachtenberg in Columbia University Contributions to Anthropology, Vol 1: 132, 1913. – Noted by M. Silverstein, June 1966.

MS 1914: English-Coos vocabulary

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 1,740 cards. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1914>. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid.

Organized in alphabetical order, by English Lemma.

MS 2021: Material for linguistic relationships between the Coos, Siuslaw, and Alsea languages

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 110 slips. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS2021>.

Material for linguistic relationships between the Coos, Siuslaw, and Alsea languages. 110 small slips of various sizes (loose in a folder). Mainly a comparative vocabulary of the 3 languages. Handwritten cards and notes.

MS 2625: Siuslaw-English Dictionary

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 1,260 cards. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS2625>.

Box of handwritten data slips. Appears to be the original organization of a grammar. Includes phonological information, categorized verbs and adverbs, and some key information explaining his notations.

MS 4800: James Owen Dorsey Papers

Created by James Owen Dorsey. Circa 1870-1956, with the bulk of materials from 1870-1895. 30 linear feet total. Finding Aid is available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS4800>.

Reverend James Owen Dorsey (1848-1895) was a missionary and Bureau of American Ethnology ethnologist who conducted extensive research on Siouan tribes and languages. The papers of James Owen Dorsey comprise mostly ethnographic and linguistic materials on various tribes of the Siouan language family as well as tribes from the Siletz Reservation in Oregon. These materials include texts and letters with interlineal translations, grammar notes, dictionaries, drawings, and his manuscripts. In addition, the collection contains Dorsey's correspondence, newspaper clippings, his obituaries, and reprints.

Series 2: Siletz Reservation, 1881-1889: Dorsey conducted research at Siletz Reservation in Oregon from August to through November in 1884. This series contains his field notes from his work with several tribes at the reservation as well as his later analysis of his notes. He collected notes on Applegate Creek, Galice, Chasta Costa, Upper Coquille, Chetco (Tolowa), Mikonotunne (Mackanotin), Tutu, Joshua, Euchre Creek, Sixes, Naltunnetunne, Smith River, Upper Umpqua, Yaquina, Alsea, Siuslaw, Lower Umpqua, Takelma, Sasti (Shasta), and Klikitat. This series of the collection consists primarily of vocabulary and notes on grammar, as well as myths, sketch maps, notes on social structure, a list of villages, and a manuscript. There are also letters regarding botanical specimens and plant names that he collected at the reservation. Boxes 59, 62, and 67 (items # 365, 368, 392-296, 415) contain linguistic materials related to Coos Bay, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw.

John Peabody Harrington Papers

Created by John Peabody Harrington. Circa 1907-1959. 683 linear feet total. Finding Aid is available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.1976-95>. Microfilm and digital surrogates of the microfilm are available through the finding aid.

And more information about the collection can be found in the published guides to the collection: Elaine L. Mills, ed. The Papers of John Peabody Harrington in the Smithsonian Institution, 1907-1957. 8 vols. Millwood, NY: Kraus International Publications, 1981-89.

John Peabody Harrington was an ethnologist and linguist employed by the Smithsonian Institution's Bureau of American Ethnology (BAE) for forty years, 1915-1955. Through his extensive travel and research, J. P. Harrington amassed an unprecedented record of linguistic and cultural knowledge. The J.P. Harrington Collection of linguistic and cultural materials is one of the largest holdings at the NAA – this collection includes documentation of over 130 languages, close to one million pages of notes, over 200 sound recordings, approximately 3,500 photographs, and thousands of botanical and other natural specimens.

Series 1: Papers relating to the Native American History, Language, and Culture of Alaska and the Northwest coast. 28.86 linear feet (76 boxes). More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. This series within the Harrington Papers contains records of Harrington's work studying languages and cultures of Alaska, Western Canada, Washington, and Oregon which was undertaken just prior to and during his employment as BAE ethnologist (1915-1954). These materials focus primarily on linguistic data, although there also include significant amounts of ethnographic and historical information.

Subseries 1.11: Alesa/Siuslaw/Coos. 1933, 1942. More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. Included in this subseries are vocabularies for all three listed languages, as well as terms in Lower Umpqua and Chinook jargon. A section of written notes are accompanied by "somentographs" (visual representations of the sounds present in each language). Vocabulary and nonlinguistic information on plants and animals are also present, along with placename vocabulary. Microfilm reels 21-24, Boxes 49-58 contain linguistic material related to Coos.

Subseries 1.12: Southwest Oregon Athapascan. 1942. More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. Included in this subseries are materials collected largely from speakers of various languages of the Coquille, Umpqua, and Rogue River regions who were residing at Siletz Reservation. Coos speakers Frank Drew and Lottie Evanoff were interviewed by Harrington. Microfilm reels 25-27, Boxes 59-66 include related materials. Microfilm reel 26, box 62 specifically contains material collected from the "Coos region."

ETHNOGRAPHY

MS 191-A: Letters to George Gibbs with sketch, general remarks, and Coos Bay language vocabulary

Created by John J. Milhau and sent to George Gibbs. 1856. 14 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS191A>.

Includes: letter to George Gibbs, 13 October 1856, (2 pages). Letter to George Gibbs, 14 November 1856, transmitting "Coos Bay" vocabulary of two "different dialects of the same language” identified as “An-a-sitch” and “Coos Bay,” and which states, “I enclose you herewith vocabularies of the Indian languages spoken between Cape Arago and Cape Foulweather viz the Coose Bay, lower Umpqua or Kallawatsett, and the Alseya, also the Umpquah proper,” (6 pages). A “sketch of the coast showing the relative positions of the Siusclau, Alseya, and Yakoner rivers,” (1 page). “A few general remarks about the Coast Indians,” (4 pages). And a copy of Milhau’s “dictionary sounds,” (1 page).

The language in this entry varies from the language within its catalog record. This could be spelling and grammar corrections, additional information regarding Coos materials, abridgement, and/or removal of culturally sensitive or outdated terminology.

Related collections: copies of many of the vocabularies from Milhau, made by Gibbs, can be found in the following NAA manuscripts: MS 191-B, MS 958, and MS 955-A.

MS 196-A: Observations on the Coast Tribes of Oregon

Created by George Gibbs, Lieutenant George Crook, William Babcock Haze, and John J. Milhau. Approximately 18 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS196A>. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid.

Includes a note in George Gibbs’ handwriting, recorded from Lieutenants George Crook and William B. Hazen, and John J. Milhau; a draft of another, possibly incomplete, manuscript in Gibbs’ hand (9 pages); and a copy of another manuscript in unknown handwriting (9 pages). Information on the following tribes is included: “Clat sops (Klaat-sop), a band of Chinooks, Tilamookhs of Nsietshawns (Hale); Ya-Konah and Alseya; Kalawatsets and Coos; Klikatats of Wilamette Valley (traded with Coast Indians); Too-too-tin or Too-toat-nie = Rogue River Indians; and Smith’s River Indians.”

MS 330: Ethnological notes, etc. on the Coos

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 2 notebooks, 132 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS330>.

Includes two handwritten “pocket notes,” Vol. 1 and Vol. 2. Vol. 1 contains ethnographic information and notes including information on specific individuals. Some history of Coos and Rogue River Indians and relations with the United States government is also included, along with traditional practices and customs related to dreaming and “miracles” performed by an Indian doctor, descriptions of traditional dress, rough sketches of Coos land and bordering communities, songs with tune, descriptions of ceremonial dances, sweat houses, and other structures, and sketches of hunting tools. Vol. 2 appears to be a collection of traditional stories.

MS 1725: Siuslaw Myths

Created by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg (collector) and Louis Smith (collaborator/informant). 9 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1725>.

Includes one myth titled “Butter Balls.”

MS 1726: Ethnology of the Coos Indians

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 18 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1726>.

Includes typed and handwritten documents. Documents reflect ideologies of the time regarding the futility of American Indian cultural practices and describes the history of forced removal and resettlement of Coos Indians. Reflects on past customs and living practices as remembered by Elder Coos members. A description of practices performed by “medicine men,” marriage customs, kinship, naming, dress, and burial customs are included along with other information. Also included are origin and creation stories, along with information on tool making. Please note: this collection contains outdated terminology and descriptions.

MS 1728: Lower Umpqua texts and grammatical notes

Collected by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg. 6 notebooks, approximately 80 pages each. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1728>.

Includes information on Kuitsh Lower Umpqua.

MS 1821: Coos Notes

Collected by Leo Frachtenberg. 23 pages, 9 half sheets, 1 notebook (48 pages and 2 inserts).

Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS1821>. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid.

Contains two files. The first file is a notebook containing handwritten notes which appear to be stories written in Coos with English translations. Half sheets with notes on pronouns are also included. Full sheets have place names, map references, sentence samples, numbers, and verbal paradigms. The second file contains notes from 1909, including “a linguistic investigation of the Coos” on behalf of the Bureau of American Ethnology. Handwritten notes on the Coos are also included.

MS 2360: Census of Oregon Indians in 1857

Collected by Barnhardt. 1 page. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS2360>

Includes lists of tribes (not persons) of Astoria sub-Agency, Warm Springs Agency, Siletz Agency, Umpqua sub-Agency, Grande Ronde Agency.

MS 2516: Alsea and Lower Umpqua texts and notes

Created by Leo Joachim Frachtenberg and Livingston Farrand. 21 notebooks, and index to grammatical text. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS2516>. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid.

Includes: Alsea texts (9 notebooks); ethnological notes (1 book); grammatical notes (1 book); notes to texts (4 books); traditions (2 books); notes on Alsea language (2 books); general notes (1 book); translations of text (1 book). Each book is approximately 80 pages. The index to the grammatical text is related to Lower Umpqua. Folders 4 and 5 of this manuscript contain manuscripts made by Livingston Farrand.

MS 2518: Coos Myths; traditions; grammatical notes and miscellany

Collected by J. Buchanan. 11 notebooks, each is approximately 80 pages. Finding Aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.MS2518>.

Consists of five notebooks of Coos Myths, three notebooks of traditions, one book of grammatical notes, and two miscellaneous books.

MS 4516: Philip Drucker Papers

Created by Philip Drucker. 17 boxes. Contact NAA staff for a copy of the Finding Aid and more information about this collection.

This collection contains the professional papers of Dr. Philip Drucker (1911-1982) and documents his activities as Assistant Curator for the U.S. National Museum, Ethnologist and Anthropologist for the Bureau of American Ethnology, Staff Anthropologist for the U.S. Navy, farmer, and professor at the Universities of Kentucky, Colorado, and Baylor. Included are notes and fieldnotes from his expeditions to the American Northwest, Mesoamerica, and Oceania. Also included are correspondence, drafts, and notes of some of his written works, element lists, newspapers, newsletters that he collected, papers and materials from colleagues in the field, class notes and exams from his years of teaching, photographs, and maps.

Series 6: Oregon Coast and Northern California. Box 15. Contains field notebooks (Vol. 1-6), Oregon Coast, May-July 1934, notes on Coos, Alsea, and Clackamas.

John Peabody Harrington Papers

Created by John Peabody Harrington. Circa 1907-1959. 683 linear feet total. Finding Aid is available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.1976-95>. Microfilm and digital surrogates of the microfilm are available through the finding aid.

And more information about the collection can be found in the published guides to the collection: Elaine L. Mills, ed. The Papers of John Peabody Harrington in the Smithsonian Institution, 1907-1957. 8 vols. Millwood, NY: Kraus International Publications, 1981-89.

John Peabody Harrington was an ethnologist and linguist employed by the Smithsonian Institution's Bureau of American Ethnology (BAE) for forty years, 1915-1955. Through his extensive travel and research, J. P. Harrington amassed an unprecedented record of linguistic and cultural knowledge. The J.P. Harrington Collection of linguistic and cultural materials is one of the largest holdings at the NAA – this collection includes documentation of over 130 languages, close to one million pages of notes, over 200 sound recordings, approximately 3,500 photographs, and thousands of botanical and other natural specimens.

Series 1: Papers relating to the Native American History, Language, and Culture of Alaska and the Northwest coast. 28.86 linear feet (76 boxes). More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. This series within the Harrington Papers contains records of Harrington's work studying languages and cultures of Alaska, Western Canada, Washington, and Oregon which was undertaken just prior to and during his employment as BAE ethnologist (1915-1954). These materials focus primarily on linguistic data, although there also include significant amounts of ethnographic and historical information.

Subseries 1.11: Alsea/Siuslaw/Coos. 1933, 1942. More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. Included in this subseries are vocabularies for all three listed languages, as well as terms in Lower Umpqua and Chinook jargon. A section of written notes are accompanied by "sementographs" (visual representations of the sounds present in each language). Vocabulary and nonlinguistic information on plants and animals are also present, along with placename vocabulary. Microfilm reels 21-24, Boxes 49-58 contain linguistic material related to Coos.

Subseries 1.12: Southwest Oregon Athapascan. 1942. More information available through finding aid on SOVA. Digital surrogates are available through the finding aid. Included in this subseries are materials collected largely from speakers of various languages of the Coquille, Umpqua, and Rogue River regions who were residing at Siletz Reservation. Coos speakers Frank Drew and Lottie Evanoff were interviewed by Harrington. Microfilm reels 25-27, Boxes 59-66 include related materials. Microfilm reel 26, box 62 specifically contains material collected from the "Coos region."

SOUND RECORDINGS

John Peabody Harrington Papers

Created by John Peabody Harrington. Circa 1907-1959. 683 linear feet total. Finding Aid is available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.1976-95>. Digital surrogates of the sound recordings are available through the finding aid.

And more information about the collection can be found in the published guides to the collection: Elaine L. Mills, ed. The Papers of John Peabody Harrington in the Smithsonian Institution, 1907-1957. 8 vols. Millwood, NY: Kraus International Publications, 1981-89.

John Peabody Harrington was an ethnologist and linguist employed by the Smithsonian Institution's Bureau of American Ethnology (BAE) for forty years, 1915-1955. Through his extensive travel and research, J. P. Harrington amassed an unprecedented record of linguistic and cultural knowledge. The J.P. Harrington Collection of linguistic and cultural materials is one of the largest holdings at the NAA – this collection includes documentation of over 130 languages, close to one million pages of notes, over 200 sound recordings, approximately 3,500 photographs, and thousands of botanical and other natural specimens.

Harrington produced the earliest sound recordings of many languages and, in some cases, the only surviving audio record of the language. His earliest audio recordings were on wax cylinders. Those in good condition were copied to magnetic audio tape in the early 1980s as part of the Federal Cylinder Project. Copies are available for use at both the National Anthropological Archives (NAA) and the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress. In the 1930s Harrington began recording on aluminum disks. Many of these disks were also copied to audio tape for use in the NAA although corroded disks could not be copied. New technologies are now being developed that will allow us to recover these sound materials and make them available digitally.

There are 59 sound recordings within the Harrington Papers catalogued as “Coos.” These were collected by both Harrington and John Paul Marr and were recorded with a number of different Native collaborators (see the catalog records for individual sound recordings for more information). All of these recordings are individually catalogued and listed in the online finding aid; and digital surrogates of the recordings can be found through the finding aid.

There is 1 sound recording within the Harrington Papers catalogued as “Siuslaw.” This recording was collected by John Paul Marr with collaborator Spencer Scott. This recording is catalogued individually and listed in the online finding aid; digital surrogate of this recording is available through the finding aid.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Photo Lot 24: Photographs of Americans and other subjects 1840s-1960s

Collected by the Bureau of American Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution; created by multiple photographers. Approximately 22,000 items total. Finding aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.PhotoLot.24>. Digital surrogates available through the finding aid.

The collection consists mostly of original and copy prints. There are also some negatives, artwork, photographs of artwork, and printed materials. Included is a large miscellany of ethnological, historical, and some archaeological subjects collected by the Bureau of American Ethnology from a wide variety of sources. To these have been added some photographs and other illustrative material acquired and sometimes accessioned by the Department of Anthropology of the United States National Museum (now National Museum of Natural History).

SPC: Northwest Coast: There are 11 boxes within this collection labeled as “Northwest Coast.” None include any images identified as Coos, Umpqua, or Siuslaw. However, there could be related images that are either identified incorrectly or not identified at all. Contact the NAA for more information.

Photo Lot 74-17: Herman J. Viola photograph collection of Star Hawk Pow Wow, American Indian Cultural Resources Training Program, and acquisition trips for NAA

Created by Herman J. Viola. Approximately 310 negatives (acetate), approx. 300 prints (silver gelatin), approx. 120 negatives (35 mm), 31 color slides. Finding aid available through SOVA at <https://sova.si.edu/record/NAA.PhotoLot.74-17>. Contact the NAA for additional information about this collection.

Photographs were made by Herman J. Viola, depicting the 1973 Institute of American Indian Art meeting. Wolf Robe Hunt and this Acoma pottery, the transfer of the Acee Blue Eagle collection from Mae Abbott’s home to the NAA, and the 1974 Star Hawk Pow Wow in Watonga, Oklahoma. Additionally, there are photographs of NAA staff and the 1974 Acee Blue Eagle reception at the NAA, possibly taken by Viola. The collection also contains some photographs of Wounded Knee taken by Reverend Salvatore Genete, and copies of official portraits of Governor Aquillar of San Ildefonso Pueblo made by Harry B. Neufeld. There are also National Archives photographs of Chinese Boxer Rebellion prints, and Young watercolors and Alden sketches of American landscapes.

Includes a portrait of George Wasson, Coos-Coquille, and participant in the NAA's American Indian Cultural Resources Training Program.

Glass Negatives (collected by the Bureau of American Ethnology) 1850s-1930s

Collected by the Bureau of American Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution. 5,588 negatives. Contact the NAA for more information about this collection. Digital surrogates are available through the online catalog.

The collection includes original and some copy negatives that were created or collected by the Bureau of American Ethnology (BAE). The Bae, sometimes aided by other Smithsonian photographers, continued the work of making studio portraits and photographs of American Indian delegations who came to Washington, DC. BAE staff, collaborators, and contributors also made many field photographs documenting ethnology and archaeology research in North America. Many of these images were added to this collection. In addition, photographic negatives were acquired from various additional sources, including images made at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, photographs of artwork in repositories outside of Washington, DC, and copies of photographic prints, etc.

There are 2 images within this collection catalogued as "Umpqua." Both of these images have been digitized and can be found through the online catalog.

There are 772 images within this collection catalogued under the general subject heading of "Indians of North America Plateau," which may contain Coos images, including those that have either not been yet identified or have been incorrectly identified. Many of these images have been digitized and can be found through the online catalog.

Restrictions: Original glass negatives are restricted from physical access in the NAA research room due to preservation concerns. However, reproductions can be viewed online or in person. Contact the NAA for more information about access.