Dear Helfor,

I feel sure the ferocious looking icks with their dorsal white spots are quite well known, but I thought it worth sending them along, as I can say for certain that species the host was. They emerged from beneath of Dendrelapia pudibunda 1., the Pale Tassock, bred by my young friend Paul Williams. The icks emerged
30 May - 1 June. The medlar larvae were found "at various spots in Co. Dublin". How are you both? We had a good holiday in Grand Canary in Febe o March. I found two new (to me) species of butterfly, & I understand that the orthoptera etc. which I caught & sent to an expert in these bugs in England, are canary. Some excitement! We now sending urgent notes to Bernard Kettlewell in Oxford to test for radio-activity i.e., a from French atomic explosion area in Africa.

Yours ever,

Dear Helford,

Here are the another stilts, together with the cocoons (on a piece of cloth) of Harpyia furcata C. (Yellow Ritter) from which the base emerged. The furcula has been saved from the Burroughs.

Yours,

20th Oct 1960. Very dry. 4 missed 7.30 morning with strong NW wind so that I am told the frost last night was compact.
In afternoon I took a winch to NW corner & gave the wood an even shape from top down to bottom & cuffed it to the rear. NW wind. The sun shone through the trees & it made the trees look well & made the wood look better than ideal. NW wind. A day of cold, sunny weather. A day of giving shape with lots of cold, sunny weather.
11th Oct 1960. Winched at 7.30 AM with 90° to left & 45° to right. 9.30 AM. The sun shone bright & I went in to get a coffee. 10.30 AM. I made up my mind to do the whole lot.

19th Oct 1900. Another extremely dull day with light E wind but albeit no very close rain. Had made a cedar bed 1 foot long by 1 foot wide. Relative were to remain till next night, then replaced with stone & compost.
25th Oct. A similar day to last but wind is a very light
E. Boxwood rescued. All plants received from McKee in 24's. Some I got planted see plan below.
A very nice bright day with a feeling of Parma首席 where the sun was out. Continued & finished planting of the shrub or received from St. Bonard nursery yesterday & today. In catalogue & leaflet of the new plants. Both the hyacinths & camellias in flower. Still kept a look out for more. Heart's Delight is the first flower on the first magnolia to bloom here. 27th Oct. First flower on the first Honeysuckle. They flowering in the garden.
27th Oct. Better now now at night & very wet & ground, but afternoon dry & still. Cold. Wind mainly NE.

The following plants received from St. Bonard nursery:
- Hyacinthus x 'Hearts of Biltmore'
- Camellia 'Spring Festival' "Harvest Moon"
- Various other hybrids & named varieties

- Bonsai's
- Various named varieties
- Flowering bulbs
- Hardy perennials

Planted in front of the house in the flower borders.

14th April 1961. After rain at night; a very calm day till afternoon. Won heavy shower before 2.45. Stopped our planting potatoes in top border next afternoon. My mother asked if we had any 2 years old Holly. She said no. See chart on p. 33, note. Then rain. Afternoon like funeral.

15th April. A quiet day developing into a beautiful sunny afternoon. Won or want to see "Heaven's Garden," however, I was surprised to see it open to the public. Took with me some momentary transport for my heart's desire. We had taken to garden in 1958; no charge of ten shillings. We called "The Queen of the Grotto.

16th April. A day after heavy rain - almost frost - with nice sunny weather. Had a very cold E wind. At 11 it was 45°F. Afternoon. I was able to spend some time in the Capri. This season more than in past years. No. 1 border finished. No. 2 border in progress. Still the Holly is a possibility. We had a very favorable time of it. It was a beautiful day.

17th April. After a fine day, my all right so much better. Though not as good as 1960. This year we have tried an experiment in potatoes in top plot. But not as good. Really down to 3 years. But no valley potatoes. See chart on p. 35. Extra. Then decided to plant the rest potatoes. But potatoes in main plot beginning with central island of 15 Maria Pines. Plot of bedding plants - 116 Maria Pines.

20th April. In my garden, too wet to do any work. Got rain in morning.

21st April. After a fine day; very warm; very windy. In the garden in field of recent, including Potsdam, Victoria, and 116 Maria Pines. Several potatoes in main plot in first week of May (weather 15th May) 23rd April. A fine day; very warm; much wind. Got rain in morning.

28th April. A very fine day after very wet week. But no change. Home sure to begin work of potatoes. Pasture clearing carried on.

29th April. After right rain at dawn a very nice day. Darkness.

In afternoon, sun thought of bedfast to me, so came to garden to start with tussock & brought 4 bushels from 3, 4, & 5 "35.

30th April. A very fine day, but I have been "April" showy.

Sunday. In afternoon we walked to Tollymore Park (Barrington Gate) of Bigges' Park to home via the quarry & the sheep fold. Took a couple of folk to a concert in the Guildhall. cocoa & a glass & no music, chris.

The flower bed in my garden & Tollymore Park was lovely.

1st May 1961. Rain commenced at 8 a.m. a fall almost throughout the day. mild of first, became colder in afternoon, but shower of first & evening, between 5 & 8, the light & not severe.

2nd May. After a fine night rain again, commenced just after 8 a.m. & fell in heavy showers sometimes, profuse. All evening wet but not very bad, but cold heavy showers. First & flower of my roses opened yesterday on the old shed & rose from Lord Joes Rosarian garden.

3rd May. After a fine night a nice day still, many flowers matured. Should finish the bed to plant potatoes.

And heard a greenhouse to call again from the more or less 1st indication in Tollymore. The afternoon was profuse, showers, but after a 3rd very downcast, still, September like showers. Just after the April 2nd town set. Skullblossum way in flower & the bare & bed garden.

4th to 6th May 1961. This start our garden on 5th. All days of heavy shower. DAY bright. Some with hail & Thunder. In afternoon of 6th a light evening. Mrs. and Mrs. Gough come up. Mrs. Gough & Mr. Gough (son of my first friend, Erskine) took a car. Mr. Tolle (3rd wife) came for dinner at my house, succeeded to take a car & boat. They are to see the new garden at Tollymore. Tollymore, etc. In the garden. On evening of 6th time of the Tollymore. Plant festival. 10th to 11th.

Mrs. Gough gave me a nice for some of the plants. Mrs. Gough gave me a name for some of the plants. The little corner in pot.
